Eugene Addison Van Den Kerckhoven, Jr.

The tragic death of Eugene Van Den Kerckhoven Jr. on July 7 has again strengthened and refreshed our faith in immortality. That so much of youth and promise and hope should vanish is unthinkable. Some workers quickly do their task of service and of love. So their promotion early comes to higher work above.

Eugene will be remembered by his friends, his teachers and the townspeople of all ages for his smile and his courtesy. He was the open book and the honest opinion. He attended the town schools, graduated from Gould Academy in 1937 and entered the University of Maine the same year. He would have been a senior on opening of college.

Fondness of music and a fine singing voice were his gifts and during vacations his true baritone was welcomed in the church choir. As a student at music camp he played 1st clarinet in orchestra and was a member of the boys' quartet. His appreciation of good music was deep and spare moments were often spent in solitary enjoyment of classical records.

Books were another love and with his voracious reading and retentive memory he possessed an enviable knowledge of literature, science and history. He planned to make teaching his career.

During his freshman year at college he won, with a natural ability, competitive parts in several dramatic productions.

Mountain climbing was his vacation sport and the rugged challenge of hazardous peaks stimulated his stout endurance. He was justly proud of the achievement of scaling each one of the Presidential Range.

Eugene's popularity with his friends and associates was deserved.

ed. His kindness, honesty and liking for truth and fair play were some of his endearing traits.

To his parents and sister, his grandmother, his aunts and uncles and cousin sympathy is given. To another for whom his warm friendship and love has extended from preparatory school through the mature years of college, sympathy is given.

The esteem and affection for him and his bereaved family were expressed by the masses of cut flowers banked at the funeral services and on the burial lot at peaceful Woodlawn Cemetery.

A simple and beautiful funeral service was conducted by Rev. K. W. Hawthorne, pastor of the West Parish Congregational Church.

These lines were used:—"For life is eternal and love is immortal and death is only a horizon, and a horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight."

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

Happenings That Affect the Future of Every Individual—National and International Problems Inseparable from Local Welfare

Early in May, Herbert Hoover, the only living ex-President, made a noteworthy speech to a group of 1800 editors and publishers. The world, he said, had drunk too deeply of the mixed drinks of three ghosts: "The shade of Karl Marx with his socialism, the shade of Mussolini with his dictatorial economy, the spook of Lord John Maynard Keynes with his... perpetual endorsement for bureaucrats. And we have contributed an American ideology of give-away programs. It might be called the New Generosity. It is not yet a ghost."

Mr Hoover did not turn thumbs down on all governmental welfare activities. Indeed, he said, "Security from the cradle to about 18 to 25 years of age, from about 65 to the grave, has always been sacred to the American people. But, he went on, the group which is in between these extremes "can find its own security only in a free but tough system of risk and self-reliance. It can be destroyed by taxes and the four mixed drinks."

Then Mr Hoover turned his attention to our two major political parties. He observed that in European nations there are multiples of parties which create confusion and despair. If we are to avoid that, he said, our two parties must really become opposites. We should have, on the one hand, a staunchly conservative Republican Party, opposed, on the other, by a Democratic party which tends to the left only under such a condition he believed, would it be possible for the voters to make a clear choice.

Mr Hoover's idea is simply that the parties stand definitely for specific opposed policies. Time will tell whether that goal is possible or not.

Summer Workshop of N. T. L. Drawing To Close

The summer workshop of the National Training Laboratory in Group Development is drawing to a close. There will be final General Sessions Thursday evening and Friday morning. Most of the delegates will leave sometime Friday or Saturday. Part of the staff will stay at the Academy for about three weeks for a writing and evaluation period.

Monday evening, Jack French, Goodwin Watson and Herbert Thelen led a meeting on leadership in which new techniques of group involvement were tried. Tuesday morning Mildred Teasley, Acting Chief of the Training and Educational Relations Department of the Tennessee Valley Authority, spoke of her work with the Tennessee Valley people during the past ten years.

Another visitor to the Laboratory during the final week was Erich Lindemann, Director of Mental Health, Harvard School of Public Health, who met with delegates and staff members interested in the subject of mental health.

Dr and Mrs Willard Givens arrived yesterday and will be here for the closing sessions. Dr Givens is the executive secretary of the National Education Association.

choice, and for the respective parties to really stand for something definite and unequivocal.

It is certainly evident that neither of the parties even faintly resembles a cohesive whole today.

The Democrats are now the majority party, and the President, their leader, has a program of unprecedented scope for enlarging the functions of the government, for putting the government into business, for continued Federal spending on a huge scale, and for all-inclusive social security. At the same time, the Democrats have in the Senate the foremost advocate of government economy, Senator Byrd, and their majority is made possible by a Southern delegation which still holds to traditional states' rights doctrines, and which in almost 100 per cent opposed to the President on such great issues as the Administration's civil rights bill.

The situation is similarly confused within the Republican party. Its most effective leader is Governor Taft, a conservative who believes that every government is the greatest menace to the freedom of the people. Yet it also has a group of aggressive liberals, headed by such men as Aimee and Morgan, and such women as Catherine and Helen, who are continuing to vote under the present leadership and along with some of the liberal program.

It can be effectively argued that a great political party is big enough to contain men of widely varied views. However, at the present time the vote does not have much choice. In the last Presidential election, for instance, Governor Dewey and Warren campaigned on a program which, in essence, was not basically different from Mr. Truman's. They offered the voters about the same things that Mr. Truman offered them, but said the Republicans could do it better. This attitude, as the results proved, was not convincing.

BUCKET BRIGADEERS SAVE POPLAR TAVERN

A fire on the roof of Poplar Tavern at North Newry Sunday forenoon was nearly quenched by a bucket brigade before the arrival of the Newry portable pump. The Bethel firemen made the run in 12 minutes, arriving soon after the Newry equipment was in action, but their aid was not needed.

The timely discovery of the blaze by a passerby prevented serious damage, although one side of the roof was burned and water damaged several rooms. Loss is covered by insurance.

The Tavern is owned by Mr and Mrs Mervin Rowland, and is occupied by them and their three children, and Mrs Rowland's parents, Mr and Mrs Lester Lane.

FIREMEN QUICKLY QUENCH GASOLINE FIRE AT MORGAN'S STORE THIS MORNING

Guy Morgan's store and adjoining apartment were damaged by fire and smoke this forenoon when a gasoline fire threatened to spread from the basement. The blaze apparently started when gasoline which had seeped from nearby tanks, and was on the surface of water when Mr Morgan washed down the cellar floor, ignited as the automatic drain pump started. Fortunately Mr Morgan escaped injury as the flames spread, and the firemen controlled the fire in a very few minutes.

"Do As I Say, Not As I Do"

There came to Harding College in this week's mail an imposing educational kit from our Federal government. It contained seven colorful textbooks and brochures designed to equip teachers to teach school boys and girls and college students how to be thrifty, how to manage money wisely, how to live within one's income. One brochure is an elaborate four-color journal for classroom use here, and the kit, prepared by the Treasury Department, also contains a book of thrift songs and another with the script for a concert play on this.

Upon careful examination I found these teaching aids to be excellent. They offer practical programs of thrift and money management for youngsters. The techniques presented are sound. If utilized in our schools and colleges, these aids are not merely stressing thrift; the instructions should be valuable. However, for the Federal government to be undertaking to teach the citizens thrift, sound budgeting, money management and wise spending cannot, under present circumstances, be taken without a grin and a somewhat sickly grin at that.

How To Spend Wisely?
The government's "Lessons in Arithmetic" on excellent thrift text says: "No matter how well the family budget is managed, a child will never be able to look out for himself properly unless he also learns how to spend wisely how to save and what to save for."

From a draft of the House Committee Report "Government Budget Construction Costs From 1930 to 1949" per had compared 1949 per had to previously considered budget, and though there are 10,000 empty government hospital beds, the government is building one hospital with 10,000 additional beds. Also from the House Committee "1949 V. A. employees are needed to handle veterans' insurance case applications for each 400 policies while in private industry the work had per employee is 100 policies." (and Money Management)

The government's "Plans for all Grades" has the following: "The following are the plans for the year 1950-1951. We have been saving up our pennies for a rainy day. We have been saving and thrifty. By saving them this way."

From the Office of the Budget Director: "Estimated gross public debt outstanding Federal Government: $23,600,000,000 1951 1952 1953 1954 1955 1956 1957 1958 1959 1960 1961 1962 1963 1964 1965 1966 The Balder defense was air tight and the batting attack consistent and potent. Glenn Wittich celebrated his return to the line-up with a perfect performance with this bloodcom. He poled out doubles on his first two trips to the plate thereby winning the respect of pitcher Farnham who courteously issued a pass on his third appearance. In reciprocation Glenn confined his next two blows to mere singles.

These donkeys have appeared with their owner and trainer, Jack Bartlett in such motion pictures as "Going to Heaven on a Mule" with Al Johnson, "Border Harmony" with Roy Rogers, "Singing Elk Shooters" with Gene Autry and many other films. C. E. Warner, Brothers and Sisters, Columbia, says: "We will show that the entire family will enjoy one that is clean, good and funny. One hour of fun will precede the same giving 'Happy' Jack Bartlett an opportunity to demonstrate why the Association of American Showmen has given this show company the coveted 'Gold Award' on four different occasions.

A line-up of the two teams will be in next week's rager.

NEW BUSINESS - Garage of Randall Stevens, to be completed this week on the former Coburn lot at the corner of Summer and Mechanic Streets, which will open for business next Monday. The 48x32 foot building provides ample floor space for repair work, with a large parts room and office.

THE COUNTRY PRESS SAYS

Everett, Pa., Republican: "The things that has for a long time kept the electorate behind the planners and the speechmakers has been the promise of gain without work - of something for nothing. It is nothing more than just a promise. Westerners are told that they will have new power-plants, new irrigation systems and so on, all free at government expense. Farmers are given heavy subsidies, all free at government expense. New and beautiful highways, airports, harbors, and so on become realities, all free at government expense. The unemployed are given relief and the aged are supported. Veterans receive huge benefits, all free at government expense. It's wonderful. But not one penny of it is free."

Crooby, Minn., Courier: "The proposed Columbia Valley Administration, a plan which Newsweek magazine calls 'a menace in well-fare diagnosis', would be several times as large as that of the Tennessee Valley, and would be under the direction of a monopolistic government corporation. The administration of the project would be done by directors under national, not state jurisdiction, also exempt from state control."

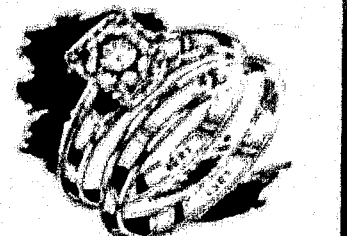

"The TVA would ultimately become the owner of a great deal of land as well as be the final authority on almost every activity carried on within the radius of the Valley."

Newton, N. C., Observer: "As other countries have found out, we can't surrender just a little bit of our independence. In this world of nations, you are either grown up or you are a child. Your Government is either your hired servant or a kind boss at first, but there is never any guarantee, human beings being what they are, that it may not be a very severe boss later on - when it is too late to do anything about it."

Elwood, Indiana, Call-Leader: "Politics has never yet remedied any kind of a situation and it never will because the ramifications of greed, selfishness, graft and dishonesty are too strong to accomplish any worthwhile end."

SCHOOLMARM FED UP... Mrs. Allison Palmer, Orangeburg, N. J., teacher, has resigned to go to Nevada where no television can distract her pupils.

CECIL B. DEMLER may "boast" a $50,000 TV dramatic show in New York, similar to his stint on Radio Theatre several years back. ABC is planning to spend "several million dollars" for the purchase of 20 or more radio and TV shows.

Arthur Lake, the radio and screen "Dagwood," is co-starring in a radio show of his own. Lisa Kirk is headed for Hollywood and a screen test.

PLATTER CHATTER

COLUMBIA: Lots of records for your library hitting the music shops these days. One of the best is Ken Griffin's rendition of two songs, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "The Garden." A combination of Gene Autry and Dinah Shore may seem strange, but there's nothing strange about their stirring rendition of "The Old Rugged Cross." The reverse carries another hymn, "In the Garden." Dinah gets into the groove with a solo that's solid, "I Still Get a Thrill," an oldie that's making a strong comeback. "Simple Melody" is on the flip.

Bill on Columbia, a new singer with a powerful voice, Tony Bonnell, gives out with a terrific rendition of "The Boulevard of Broken Dreams." That popular "I Wanna Be Loved" backs it. Another good singer, Herb Jeffries, has a fine arrangement of "The Pagan Love Song" with "Call Her Savage" on the reverse. Those who go for a mambo beat will love Xavier Cugat's latest, "You Never Had It So Good." "Strange Mood" backs it.

CAPITOL: "Stars and Stripes Forever" is done excitingly by Gordon MacRae with the support of Paul Weston and the Les Baxter chorus. "Hawai Tani Hoki Peki" is its counterpart.

EASY DOES IT

WASHING SHOWER CURTAINS IS NO PROBLEM IF YOU DIP THE ENTIRE CURTAIN IN SODA, AND THEN RINSE CAREFULLY. SPOTS WHICH NEED EXTRA CARE MAY BE RUBBED WITH A SPONGE. DO NOT TWIST OR WRING THESE CURTAINS. HANG UNFOLDED, IN THE SHADE UNTIL DRY.

White washable materials which have become stained with grass should have these spots rubbed with lard. Follow with a washing, using cold water and soap.

Net curtains will dry better, as well as retaining their shape well, if they are slipped on their curtain poles while still wet.

Heavy woolen blankets will keep well during warm months if you seal in heavy gummed paper and seal thoroughly so no insects can penetrate the package.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
Honey Salad Dressing
(Makes 2 cups)

1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon celery seed
1/2 cup strained honey
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 cup salad oil

Mix dry ingredients. Add honey, vinegar, lemon juice and onion. Pour in oil slowly, beating constantly with a rotary beater. Serve with fruit salads.

A small amount of borax added to the water in which linens are rinsed will make them more glossy and somewhat stiff.

It takes a bit more time, but you'll keep sheets and towels from having their edges stretched out of shape if you fold them before running through the wringer.

Colored fabrics which have had their colors changed by perspiration stains should be held over an open ammonia bottle to let the dyes try to restore the color.

Stuffed toys which become dirty may be washed for two or three minutes in a machine, or in heavy water by hand. Use soap jelly on ears, arms, and spots which are extremely dirty. Rinse well, and wrap in heavy toweling to prevent as much water as possible from being wrung out.

JACKSON - SILVER POST AND UNIT, NO. 65

The July 6 meetings were conducted by the new President and Commander, Iola and Harold Marshall.

The Legionnaires decided to return to the old schedule of two meetings a month -- the 1st and 2d Thursdays -- the reason is the seriousness of the times plus lots of worthwhile things to do.

July 20, a pot luck supper will be held and the Legionnaires have requested a big turn out to make plans for the remodeling of the kitchen. A busy membership makes for a happy Post so let's help design that needed kitchen or should I say galley?

Miss Orone Whitman, a junior in Woodstock High School who went to "Girls State" at Farmington is home and reports a splendid experience.

Sunday night Richard Mills and Lloyd Cushman, also juniors, left for Orono to attend "Boys' State."

A meeting will be devoted to their reports in August, and if these youngsters are like the previous delegates, their reports will be worth hearing.

Celia Lamb and President Iola Marshall, who were delegates to the 20th Annual Convention in Waterville, reported on their trip. Rena Howe stated that the Americanism Essay Awards were presented at the Woodstock High School graduation exercises as planned, and were well received.

Beano problems were discussed and plans made for bigger and better beano games. These are held every Friday night at Legion Hall. Refreshments available.

Commander Marshall named Alanson Cummings chaplain for ensuing year.

Auxiliary committees were appointed as follows: Americanism, Fannie Cummings; Child Welfare, Edith Littlefield; Community Service, Idella Morgan; Poppy, Vera Cross; Publicity, Fannie Cummings; Rehabilitation, Rena Howe; Music, Celia Lamb; Membership, all members, Celia Lamb, secretary-chairman.

Remember in the Legion we associate ourselves together for God and Country. Will you help? Fannie Cummings, Publicity Chairman

No difference where you live — Delaware to Nevada — your town or county has a problem. And 9 times out of 10, it is the water supply, the sewers, the schools — always more bonds and debt. And always, somebody claiming mismanagement — somebody claiming political favor being handed out. And, sometimes, if you look close, the guys are right — there is something in the woodpile.

So, my deduction is, if we are to avoid more and more debt, we gotta reduce the number of places where Govt. and politics can bargain in and take a hand at management — or mismanagement.

When the gas mains or the light wires or the water system is in private hands, you have gas, and light, and water. And the gas company and the electric company and the water company provide the bonds — they pay their way in taxes, and you don't worry about shortages, or more local bonds and debt, even if your home town is growing by leaps and bounds.

I am not "agin" the Govt. — I am "agin" the Govt., city or town, fumbling around in business ventures. To decide if you are on my side or vice versa, figure it out if you think the Govt. could take over or run the business you are in as good or better or worse than you can run it your ownself. Let me know.

Nobody's Business

There is much truth in the "Main Street" cartoons which appear occasionally in the Citizen. Even in Bethel are found people whose general behavior is somewhat near perfect—considerate of others, observant of the Golden Rule, good citizens, etc.—but all this disappears when they drive a car. They take chances, drive fast, stop not for stop signs but leave their cars in any place for their personal convenience. This disregard of the common rules of decency and driving practices eventually will cause a serious accident in this community. So long as the local indifference to enforcement of traffic rules continues, we expect no improvement, but offenders should remember that the most lenient officers can't overlook some things, and sooner or later they will be doing the wrong thing at the wrong time.

Again Bethel is fortunate—when we learn of the desire of the National Training Laboratory to hold a 1951 session here. We are proud and appreciative of the distinction given Bethel when the town is chosen year after year as their meeting place, and of the privilege of meeting these friendly people. We hope that arrangements can be made to accommodate an increased number here next year.

Deportment in Congress

By Don Robinson in the American Press.

If I visited Congress every day like a Washington correspondent does, I might become accustomed to the bad manners of our national representatives. But since I only get to Washington now and then, it is still very shocking to me to see our nation's leaders putting on a daily exhibit of outrageous deportment.

I use the word "deportment" because I imagine most of the thousands of daily visitors to Congress compare the House of Representatives with a classroom of mischievous schoolboys and visualize what would happen to Junior if he behaved in such deplorable fashion in his hometown public school.

In a house, there is talk, laugh and cavort while others are speaking can be sent to the principal's office, sent home, or expelled. But in the House of Representatives the speaker can only bang his gavel and ask and pray for order.

It may be excusable for Congressmen to seek some escape from listening to long-winded speeches by their constituents but if they are bored or disinterested they have the right to leave the floor of the House. Certainly there is no excuse for grown-up men when under constant surveillance by boys and girls from all over the nation to act in such fashion that the speaker has to bang for order a dozen times an hour.

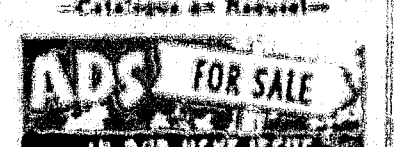

I hope one either who visits Washington or who hears the department of Congress and waste about it when he gets home (country editors are as well respected in Washington as they are able to come order by long distance calls better than the speaker can do it in his gavel).

Avoid Conspicuous Order Now!

Years Ago

(From the Bethel Courier, July 6, 1850)

We wish that a reform could be brought about in our village in some of its business relations. As it is now, the Common is becoming an intolerable nuisance by the noisy demonstrations of boys at late hours of the night. Persons out of health, laborers and aged people wish to retire early, and it is exceedingly annoying to be saluted with drums and shouts at a time when all should be still. We would suggest that all our stores be closed promptly at 9 o'clock, and that parents see that their children are at home at that hour, so that all those boys and girls who are driving about after that time can be better known and spotted. Let the Lyceum close at 9 o'clock. Better omit a portion of the exercises than keep it so late.

Trip to the Milton Mineral Springs
We made arrangements to spend the glorious fourth at the Milton Springs. Leaving home at 8 A. M., we directed our course — to quote a distinguished native poet — "down the pleasant Androscoggin," a distance of 18 miles, where we found ourselves in front of D. D. W. Abbott's new Hotel. We were surprised to find a building 75 by 40 ft., three stories high, erected at an elevation of some 600 feet above the river and ready to receive company. Mr. Abbott informed us that he went into the woods to cut the first stick of timber the 12th day of March.

Arriving there at 5 1/2 o'clock we found a large company already assembled, which gradually increased to the number of 1500. A Frocession led by the Rumford Cornet Band, a new but excellent one, marched to a grove nearby where officers were chosen for the day. An Oration was then delivered by the Editor of the Courier, which, as it will probably be reported in all the papers of the Union, we will say nothing about. This was followed by a speech from Geo. A. Bolster of Rumford, who eloquently set forth in few words the early history of our country.

The company then returned to the Hotel, where 700 persons sat down to a sumptuous dinner. Provisions had been made in the most ample manner, and a better never gratified a hungry editor.

We then visited the Spring. This is saline, composed of the salts of potash, lime and magnesia, and is very agreeable to the taste. Its saline properties are such as to cleanse the grease spots from clothing, and is slightly purgative.

Mr. Abbott is just the man for such an undertaking. We care not how many such places of resort spring up among our mountains. They are far better, in our medical opinion, than those great fashionable places of resort in more southern localities. The opportunities for gambling, berrying and fishing are great, and we doubt not the Milton Spring will prove an excellent place of resort.

The whole trip was, to us, one of unalloyed pleasure. The intervals between the demonstrations of the boys were excellent, and the corn and apple crops are now very promising.
